KINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT, Thurssday Evenlag, May 21, 1868.
There is nothing transpiring in local finances demanding extended remark. The money market in thumelal circles is reported working easy. Prime commercial paper is promptly taken at the banks at the usual rates of increst.

ly taken at the banks at the usual rates of interest.

Exchange is dull at from 50 to 75 premium haying and from 1-10 to 1, premium selling. There is very little doing in gold, and prices are regulated by New York telegraph advices, dealers buying at about 1 helow the quotathars of that market. The opening optotation to slay was 1824, and the market closed at 4 p. M. at 1825.

The Herald, of the 19th, says:

"The undertone of the gold market is very firm, and its unyleiding lendency is strengthened by the drain of specie to Europe; but the speculative transactions are on a limited scale, and there is very little disposition shown to base operations, either for a rise or a fall, on the present or prespective polifical situation, either as regards impeachment or otherwise. The general opinion is that the Senate will lake no inriher melion upon the impeachment articles; but not a few supposes that the war against the President will be rarried into the Chicago convention, and that impeachment will be undee a part of the Republican platform.
